

DNAPLANET

How reliable are the paternity test results?

You receive an unmistakable result with a probability statement for the paternity. This is shared with you as a percentage and as a verbal grade. Normally, we can confirm the paternity of someone with a probability higher than 99.99 percent, or, with a probability of 0% rule it out. The involvement of the mother in the test also adds another degree of confirmation .

Need more information? contact us at www.dna-planet.de